

State Authorization/Professional Licensure

Federal Regulations require an institution to disclose whether its programs prepare graduates for any state licensure or certification to work in the field of study.

Programs that Prepare Graduates for State Licensure or Certification

- Medical Assisting
- Medical Billing and Coding Specialist
- Professional Clinical Massage Therapy
- Surgical Technology
- Medical Office Basic X-Ray Technician
- Diagnostic Medical Sonography
- Practical Nursing

These programs are regulated occupations in North Carolina.

The Medical Assisting program offered by Southeastern College prepares graduates for the Registered Medical Assistant (RMA) and/or the Certified Medical Assistant (CMA) examination.

The Medical Billing and Coding Specialist program offered by Southeastern College prepares graduates for the Certified Billing and Coding Specialist (CBCS) examination.

The Professional Clinical Massage Therapy program offered by Southeastern College prepares graduates for the Massage and Bodywork Licensing Examination (MBLEX).

The Surgical Technology program offered by Southeastern College prepares graduates for the Certified Surgical Technologist (CST) and/or the Tech in Surgery Certified (NCCT) Critical Skills Competency examination (TS- C).

The Medical Office Basic X-Ray Technician program offered by Southeastern College prepares students for the Registered Medical Assistant (RMA) examination, and/or the Certified Medical Assistant (CMA) examination.

The Diagnostic Medical Sonography program offered by Southeastern College prepares graduates for the American Registry of Diagnostic Medical Sonography (ARDMS) examination.

The Practical Nursing Program offered by Southeastern College prepares graduates for the National Council Licensure Examination for licensure as a Practical Nurse (NCLEX-PN).

The Radiologic Technology Program offered by Southeastern College eligible to take the national certification examination administered by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT).

Successful passage of these licensure and certification examinations are required to work in North Carolina.

The institution has not made any determination regarding licensure or certification requirements in the 49 other states and the District of Columbia. Applicants who move to another state should review the requirements for their respective programs for employment in that state.

No other programs offered by Southeastern College prepare students for occupations that require professional licensure.

Student's Name: _____

Signature _____ Date _____ : _____

Signature (Parent/Guardian, if applicable) _____