

PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE DISCLOSURE
Southeastern College – Certificate, Medical Assisting

Degree Title (Concentration)	Level
Certificate in Medical Assisting	Certificate

PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This Disclosure is strictly limited to Southeastern College (SEC) determination of whether the Certificate in Medical Assisting (the “Program”), if successfully completed, would be sufficient to meet the educational requirements for licensure or certification in a State, as defined by 34 C.F.R. § 600.2.

SEC’s Certificate in Medical Assisting meets the educational degree completion requirements for licensure in the states of North Carolina and South Carolina as a Registered Medical Assistant and the designated states below. Southeastern College’s Medical Assisting Certificate Programs at the North Charleston, Columbia, and Charlotte Campuses are accredited by the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools (ABHES).

NOTE: This disclosure does not provide any guarantee that any one state licensure entity will approve or deny application for certification or professional licensure. Furthermore, this disclosure does not account for changes in state law or regulations that may affect your application for certification or licensure that may occur after this disclosure has been made. If your career plans include pursuing professional licensure or certification in your chosen field, it is important to become educated on the credentialing requirements of the state in which you hope to practice by contacting the state’s licensure entity.

No states besides Maryland require Medical Assistants to be licensed. However, Washington state requires certification and New Jersey, Massachusetts, Arizona, and South Dakota require them to be certified to perform injections. Keep in mind that this information is subject to change, so it is essential to verify the requirements in your specific state. Ref: <https://www.stepful.com/post/medical-assistant-license>

Per 34 C.F.R. § 668.43, SEC has determined whether the program satisfies state educational requirements for licensure as follows:
